

OPEN ACCESS: MAKE YOUR RESEARCH VISIBLE

Lecture by Dr. Alma Swan on Open Access – Monday 22 February

If you as a researcher want your articles to be promoted and cited by media and other researchers, and at the same time want to keep track on where and when your research gets downloaded, Open Access (OA) is a way to achieve both!

On Monday 22 February, expert in Open Access Dr. Alma Swan, Director of Key Perspectives Ltd, UK, will give a lecture on how to use Open Access in your daily work and how it can help raise the impact of your research. It's also a vital tool for sharing your research and knowledge. Alma Swan will be happy to answer your questions on Open Access.

The lecture will take place on Monday 22 February from 09.00 to 10.30 at Aarhus University, the Victor Albeck building (in the Blue Lecture Room), and is open for everyone.

Lauritz B. Holm-Nielsen
